Dear Mr Boswarva,

You made a request for information, which was received on 23rd January 2017, which we replied to on the 14th February.

You requested:

"Please provide a list of the academies (or academy trusts) that are members of the RPA scheme, based on the most recent date for which that information is held. Please include at minimum the name of the school and a unique identifier such as the URN or DfE Number, and ideally also the name of the local education authority (LEA)."

Which was dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Further to our previous response, we confirm that you can re-use this data.

Please ensure that when re-using the data you ensure that the follow the guidance below.

The information supplied to you continues to be protected by copyright. You are free to use it for your own purposes, including for private study and non-commercial research, and for any other purpose authorised by an exception in current copyright law. Documents (except photographs) can be also used in the UK without requiring permission for the purposes of news reporting. Any other re-use, for example commercial publication, would require the permission of the copyright holder.

Most documents produced by a government department or agency will be protected by Crown Copyright. Most Crown copyright information can be re-used under the Open Government Licence (<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/doc/open-government-licence/>). For information about the OGL and about re-using Crown Copyright information please see The National Archives website - <http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/information-management/uk-gov-licensing-framework.htm> .

Copyright in other documents may rest with a third party. For information about obtaining permission from a third party see the Intellectual Property Office's website at www.ipo.gov.uk.

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

If you are unhappy with the way your request has been handled, you should make a complaint to the Department by writing to me within two calendar months of the date of this letter. Your complaint will be considered by an independent review panel, who were not involved in the original consideration of your request.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint to the Department, you may then contact the Information Commissioner's Office.

Yours sincerely
